GREAT LOSS OF BADGER STATE

pletely Destroyed by Fire.

INSURANCE OF ABOUT $6.000 SENATOR ALDRICH IS BUSY

TO LAPSE.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 27 .- The Wiscon-

Governor Schofield maintained insur ance on the building throughout his term totalling $600,000, but the last legterm totalling $600,000, but the last legislature instituted an insurance fund and directed the state's officers to allow the insurance policies to lapse. In June last there lapsed $510,000, and in December the sum of $90,000. There is in the finsurance fund at the present time about $6,000 to meet the loss, which conservative estimates place at $800,000. The fire practically devastated every portion of the capitol building with the exception of the north end. This was eaved but is in such a dilapidated conservative as the sum of the sum of the capitol building with the exception of the north end. This was eaved but is in such a dilapidated con-

They take up the work of the worn and wasted stomach and do it just as the stomach did when it was well and strong and able. They actually ligest the food and do it thoroughly, completely and independently, thus giving the weak and weary stomach and consideration. The impossibility of holding the party together for any length of time, it is said, is now recognized.

It is but a day or two ago that the announcement was made in the press that J. Pierpont Morgan and John A. McCall had been received at the White House this week.

Mr. Elkins spoke in support of a discriminative duty in favor of goods shipped into the United States in American bottoms. Such a policy would, he said, work a revolution in five years.

Root Also Busy.

Another Wall street agent of the administration is 'the late secretary of war. Elkin Root. Mr. Root, who has resumed his practice of law in New York City, is in close touch with the large corporate interests centered there, and, like Senator Aldrich, he has a definite mission to perform in convincing these interests that their welfare is better assured in the keeping of Pres-

It is pointed out that even should a conservative eastern Democrat be elected to the presidency the influence surpounding his administration would be of the socialistic order, and entirely inimical to business stability. In fact, a carefully devised plan is in operation to placate and allay the fears of the business interests and hold these interests in line for Roosevelt.

Amendment Voted Down.

Mr. Daniel suggested an amendment making the proposed law inapplicable unless reasonable bids were received from American vessels in response to advertisement, but it was dropped when Mr. Hale consented to strike out the socialistic order, and entirely inimical to business stability.
